Daisy Cafe & Cupcakery

Whether rain, sleet or snow is coming down outside, the sun is always shining at Daisy Cafe & Cupcakery. Inside the golden yellow exterior, owners Daryl Sisson and Kathy Brooks welcome both hungry diners and sweet seekers alike to peruse a diverse—and delightful—menu.

Start your day with a scrumptious strata, omelet and egg sandwich. For lunch and dinner, the meatloaf—shown here in the chicken, Gorgonzola and leek variety—offers a new twist on a family favorite. Better yet, each personal portion arrives tableside shaped like a cupcake. Visit during dinner, and be treated to a bit of (mashed potato) frosting. Who knew meatloaf could be this fun?

But of course, the cupcakes remain the star. With cake and frosting combinations to satisfy any sweet tooth, dessert at Daisy is a must. And on particularly dreary days, go ahead—have two!

Daisy Cafe and Cupcakery is located at 2827 Atwood Ave., Madison; (608) 241-2200 or daisycafeandcupcakery.com.
